ED FLETCHER TELEGRAMS

Why Does Grand Jury Do Nothing ?

"Hot Cargo" Racket

The three leading individuals in the local high pressure "Labor" picture are EDW. F. PIERCE, Secretary-Treasurer of the San Diego Labor Council; K. G. BITTER, Secretary of the San Diego Buildings and Trades Council and JAS. A. THOMPSON, Business Representative Local 526, International Union of Operating Engineers.

During the last session of the California State Legislature at Sacramento telegrams were sent to State Senator Ed Fletcher threatening him with dire consequences if he voted in favor of the "hot cargo" bill that was calculated to put an end to labor racketeering in California, was finally passed by the two houses, was vetoed by Gov. Olson, but repassed by the legislative bodies so that it was to become law. Then the labor crowds stepped in all over the state and got up a referendum petition holding up the application of the statute till a vote of the electors of the state either upholds or vetoes the "hot cargo" measure.

In San Diego a State Senatorial investigation held its session and brought out the fact that the local labor crowd violated the law, subjecting the violators to penitentiary offenses. The County Grand Jury has gone over the same ground but mysteriously has taken no steps to indict the violators. That is very "interesting" indeed. Do we have to import a Tom Dewey to teach the racketeers that they cannot get away with such stuff? Why is the Grand Jury side-stepping its duty? This is something every decent citizen must be interested in and we certainly are interested to know, and why, and who can tell perhaps we shall grab the snag by the neck and yank it out. We did that when the Civil Service Commission had to investigate the former police chief's conduct and you know the result and we shall take quite an interest to see this thing through, too.

Nobody can accuse us that we admire Ed Fletcher; what we are interested in is that legislators can vote according to their own decisions without being persecuted and harrassed by labor racketeers.

Foreman of the County Grand Jury is Herbert H. Holmes, Main 3748, 1448-31st street, San Diego. Ask him about it, we want to know.

'NO WITCH HUNTS' SAYS U. S. OFFICIAL

WASHINGTON,— Wendell Berge assistant attorney general, assured the nation in an address that there would be no "witch hunts" aimed at locking up critics of the war policy.

"If law enforcement officers were to start jailing people merely for what they think say or write, such officers would experience terrific difficulty in devising standards by which to determine what kind of criticism shall be permitted and what kind of criticism shall not be permitted," he said.

"Union Now" _ Treason

Dear Sir:—

I am enclosing herewith carbon copy of an article I am mailing to our local "News Tribune". The edition of the 7th contains a full-page ad. urging the people to sign a petition to congress for a union of "Canada the United Kingdom, Eire, Australia, New Zeland and the Union of South Africa, together with such other peoples, both in the Old World and the New, as may be found ready and able to unite on this federal basis.

The movement is recommended by— Robert Woods Bliss; Greenville Clark, Gardner Cowles, Jr; Russell Davenport; John W. Davenport; Harold L. Ickes; Owen J. Roberts; Daniel Calhoun Roper; Harry Scherman and Wm. Jay Schieffelin.

You may publish my letter if you wish; but I am sending more with the purpose of advising what is going on in this state. I am also enclosing stamps; please send me as many copies of your colored plate leaflet of the "future American Flag" as advocated by the order in question.

It seems to me that this is now the time when this movement should not only be brought clearly to the attention of our Congressmen that the people of the nation be not mislead through war hysteria.

Any additional information which may assist me in advising applicants as to addresses etc, will be much appreciated.

Yours truly
E. TAPPAN TANNATT.

Force Won't Establish Brotherhood

Editor News Tribune.

I note the full-page advertisment in yours of the 7th instant, titled:— "To win this war we need Union Now".

For many months I have been cognizant of this movement, when it had headquarters in New York City; with its tentacles actuating the strings of it's many puppet organizations, masquerading under different names.

My investigations have led me to the conclusion that this is not a movement in the direction of human-betterment, or universal brotherhood; but for the purpose of securing economic-world-domination through the use of money and military force. Ultimately, to once more return the United States under the rule and domination of the British Empire. The flag of this nation to not be as it is at present; but a mongrel banner on which the double-cross of St. George will play a prominent part.

It is the writer's opinion that this is the culmination of a movement, which originated in England prior to the First World War; wherein a former advisor to President Wilson played a most despicable and prominent part in the betrayal of the American people and this nation.

Before signing the petition advocated in the advertisement or any petition of like character; I would urge all truly patriotic American citizens to investigate most carefully. This is a time when it is very easy to be led astray and into greater difficulties thru too hasty or ill-advised action. We should win this war through co-operative effort on the part of the nations. The question of UNITY OF NATIONS had best be left until, with minds no longer inflamed by the desires and hatreds of war, we may approach the question with due care and consideration.

There is much behind this "Union Now" movement which does not appear in the advertisement; concerning which the people should be fully advised before making a petition to Congress.

The writer of this article will, without charge, be pleased to supply any truly interested citizen with addresses etc, from which he may obtain information directly bearing upon this subject.

My ancestors fought at Bunker Hill, to free this nation from the rule of Great Britain. I am a believer and advocate of Universal Brotherhood, if based upon spiritual understanding. Universal Brotherhood will never be attained in this world, through the power of military FORCE, or Economic-world-domination. Be not deceived. Make sure you fully understand. The size of the advertisement indicates an importance to some one; be sure that it is not for the purpose of taking from us our "Bill of Rights".

E. TAPPAN TANNATT.

Printer's Note:— I also being one of those decendants of American Revolutionary times, mince no words—Anyone who advocates 'Union Now', is a TRAITOR to these United States.

"Give Caesar What Is Caesar's !"

ST. MATTHEW, XXII, 15 TO 22.

In the beginning of the 22nd chapter of St. Matthew one learns that in God's World nothing is wasted. When the "king" prepares a feast and those invited prove to be worthless like the ten foolish virgins for example or as in chapter 22, they simply refuse to keep their date with destiny then the "king" calls in the alternates and they partake of the joys of the occasion; still, even they must be worthy of it, appearing in the proper garment of reverence.

And after Jesus presented this parable we read that the Pharisees got together and decided to "frame Him with a charge of sedition".

This scene is applicable to our day and hour.

Ceasar has his war and demands tribute in more ways than one even tribute in human lives. Now if Jesus were to appear in San Diego today HE would be confronted by the patrioteers who would corner HIM saying: "Thou wert born a foreigner, an Armenian in Galilee and when Thou becamest an American citizen Thou promised to obey the Constitution and in case of war DEFEND Thine adopted country with arms if necessary. What Dost Thee say now?"

And they would ply HIM with questions regarding conscription of men and property, even women . . . and this is no idle speculation for this very thing is happening only HE is not here in person, incarnate as an American citizen, HE is here represented by His deputies who have authority and power of the principal.

Read how HE answered their question, read the whole chapter.

"Render therefore unto Caesar the things that ARE Caesar's; and unto GOD the things that ARE God's. And when they heard it, they marvelled and left him, and went away."

What ? Not In Jail Yet ?

Various things are happening now and they happy furious and fast. A man who knew me before I took to publishing THE BROOM returned from a trip and meeting me said with genuine surprise: "How come you are not in jail?"

With the declaration of war many expected to see me locked up because I am definitely opposed to war as an instrument of international policy; it is futile, and settles nothing. In their clear moments even our statesman recognize that truth, but statesmen today are still cheap politicians and do not stand with the truth. But anyway the war in on and I am still not in jail even though I proclaim that the LORD is MY commander-in-chief.

"Render therefore unto Caesar the things that ARE Caesar's; . . . "

That's the explanation, and then my questioner "marveled and left me, and went away." And I am still publishing THE BROOM and commenting over the air, because there is no conflict, I GIVE Caesar what is Caesar's and God what is God's. And HE is MY LORD NOT F. D. R.

What History Teaches

And does Caesar get what is coming to him? Read History. Start with Julius Caesar and get the long list of those dictators and usurpers. What those fellows did not do to the Republic is not worth mentioning. They just ruined it. And did they get what was coming to them? You bet, every single one of them.

"What ye sow that shall ye also reap, for God cannot be mocked".

Whenever Caesar demands divine worship and sets himself up in place of God and ignores the TEN COMMANDMENTS and the laws of nature, just watch and see how Caesar gets his due deserts and no fooling!

"I Love You . . "

"I love you for what you are, but I love you yet more for what you are going to be. I love you not so much for your realities as for your ideals. I pray for your desires that they may be great, rather than for your satisfactions, which may be so hazardously little. A satisfied flower is one whose petals are about to fall. The most beautiful rose is one hardly more than a bud, wherein the pangs and ecstasies of desire are working for larger and finer growth. Not always shall you be what you are now. You are going forward toward something great. I am on the way with you, therefore I love you."
—Carl Sandburg.

People Want to Know

WHAT HAPPENED AT PEARL HARBOR ?

Because something happened at Pearl Harbor and the truth is not being fully given out, and was delayed and "investigated" and re-presented, instead of being plainly told as it happened in its details, while censorship of the news is exercised by military authorities, all sorts of rumors are making the rounds. Sailors who returned from Pearl Harbor are repeating this story under the seal of secrecy. How can such a story be kept secret? I heard it a dozen times and more during last week, each informant claiming that it was "his secret".

On Saturday a dance was supposed to have been on in Pearl Harbor for the boys in uniform whose battle-wagons were tied to the hitching racks. And the Japs who run the saloons and the honky tonks had received secret orders to get them drunk with free drinks. After the dance the men in uniform had a "good time" while Jap snipers occupied strategic positions. As the bombing started those snipers simply picked off the pilots who were running to their airplanes, one by one and what damage was done to air and water defense is still a matter of conjecture.

THE SILVER LINING

There is no cloud but it has a silver lining. I have made it my business to be hunting for that silver lining. When in 1929 the bottom fell out and I saw that in my own profession of civil engineering I had no hope of making a living, I looked for the silver lining and after trying various things discovered that the time had arrived to do the thing I had wanted to do all my life: publish a newspaper.

I did not have a cent of capital, but I had many friends. So I simply announced to them individually that I was about to start a paper and would they take out a year's subscription, sight unseen. Within three days I had about 75 subscribers who had paid in and I arranged with the printer to get out the first issue. Within another three days I had 150 subscribers, all paid in and the first copy came off the press. I have kept it up, raised a family, said what I wanted to say and have not missed a meal. This is the attitude which we all must cultivate if we are to come out victorious from this war.

I also want you to note that we need never sacrifice our convictions, if we have any, in order to continue to make a living. In the newspaper game a fellow's income is derived from subscribers and advertisers. In the commercial line the advertisers really pay for the paper, the subscribers merely pay for delivery and printing; all the real costs are born by the advertisers. Without sufficient advertising the editor cannot eat, say nothing about raising a family. Naturally under such economic condition there lies the temptation to cultivate the good will of advertisers rather than adopt a policy that would alienate this chief source of revenue. But I had entered the newspaper game because I wanted to be independent. If I still have to take orders from someone else, I know of better jobs I could handle with a lot more pay attached to it. In the newspaper game I want to be myself and say what I think; otherwise it is not worth to me the trouble and the setbacks one has to take when he becomes a public figure.

It therefore came about that some of my advertisers did not agree with my editorial policy. They expected that I would change the policy the moment they intimated that the advertising revenue was to be jeopardized. But, evidently, they talked to the wrong fellow, because it merely made me more determined that I was going to write what I believe to be the truth and not what others suggested I should write or lose the advertising revenue. I considered it the duty of the publisher to be true to himself and not be for sale to the highest bidder. Of course, that brought me into conflict with the powers that be and my advertising shrank to almost zero. Instead of giving up I looked again for the silver lining. You see, I know that the Almighty never sets us a task but that the means are provided to carry it out. What one must do is look for the silver lining. So I borrowed some money and went on the radio and told the folks that unless I got some help I would have to fold up, and did they want it to happen?

The response was instantaneous. Evidently I have many friends, here, there and everywhere. They don't come forward when things go smoothly, but when I stand up for a principle and its maintenance is jeopardized for the sake of that stand people who never dreamt of doing something for me personally will dig into their jeans and help finance an independent publication. That's the silver lining. Instead of going out of business because of loss of advertising, I added the additional expense of carrying on a weekly broadcast and have been steadily on the air each week and made more friends than I dreamt I had.

A CALL FOR HELP

Again I need help. This war has affected the income of many people, is playing heck with various industries. My revenues are being curtailed, but I am sure that as soon as you know that I need help you will come forward as you have in the past and do it speedily.

You may want to know whether it pays me to continue this radio program. I shall give you a few examples. I told you before that I am Air Raid Warden for the district east from Euclid avenue, south of University and west of 54th street in East San Diego. There must be more than a thousand people living in that region. My business is to get acquainted with them personally, visit at their homes and appoint assistant Air Raid Wardens to take charge of smaller sectors, under my supervision.

DISCOVERING THE WORLD AROUND US

My district is chokefull of canyons and canyon roads. I have lived there over three years, but have never before gone from house to house to become acquainted. Sunday afternoon is the only free time I have. So last Sunday, to give you an example, I called on a number of people who live in canyon houses, down at the bottom of the canyon or on the rim. You know, I never knew I had such lovely neighbors. Wherever I called they knew my name, knew about me, made me welcome and we enjoyed the visit. Now that is what these radio programs have done for me. You want to know whether they are worth the price? What more do you expect to get in this world if not the friendship of those who are living in the same world with you? Even people who disagree with me politically and in many other ways showed me the respect due a man who is honestly himself. People will rather you would be yourself so they know at all times where to find you and what to expect of you, than to expect one thing and get another.

Not far from my house I discovered an elderly little gentle lady who has travelled quite a lot in this world. She lives all by herself in a little canyon home. I had looked at the roof of her house many a time when I gazed over the landscape in the evening, but I never went to find out who lived there. We have lost all sense of neighborly courtesies we used to have when this country was in the pioneering stage. Now the emergency forces us to emerge from our little clamshells and look around in the world and find out who our neighbors are.

You know sometimes we get lonesome, have a nostalgia for a vague but very definite longing of a better world; we want something we lack. In my worldwide travels where I have met all sorts of people, young, old, rich, poor, male and female, I made this discovery; everyone of them carries a different message for us. They all are different, each one has something that will make us richer in feeling, in view point, in understanding and in many other useful ways, if we know how to gain their confidence and let them show us their treasures which they hold inside themselves, but are glad to bring forth and confide in us. That always breaks my nostalgia. So now when I will be again lonesome for some reason or other, you know you can be lonesome in the midst of the largest crowds, I shall call upon the little lady who lives by herself, she is over 60, almost 70, and talk about what she saw in the world when she roamed around. And I shall call on the other people who work hard to make a living but found time to delve into the secrets of life and evolve their own philosophy of right and wrong and back it up in practice like the enterprising Americans they are. I spent a marvelous Sunday afternoon getting acquainted and enjoying myself. Found a few more assistants, set the groundwork for a first aid group and am ready now for next Sunday to carry on.

LIVE AND LET LIVE

But on the other end of town I discovered another young woman in her sixties. She runs a boarding house on Titus street. A lovely, motherly, strict disciplinarian with the heart in the right place who simply is determined that she won't become a charity case and is boarding 10 nice young aircraft workers. I cannot help but like such women who will not give in but are carrying on to be of service and pay their own way in the world.

And this lady is doing no harm to anybody. I went and talked to every one of her neighbors. They all say she is conducting a model boarding house, that her boys respect and obey her and cause no trouble or disturbance; that nobody would know she had a boarding house, except that the city planning Commission has ordered her to discontinue it because she lives in the wrong zone. I asked her neighbors whether they want her removed. All say this: "If the planning commission leaves her alone we won't kick. She is O. K. and we would do nothing to hurt her; but of course we don't want to encourage the idea of opening up permanent boarding houses in our restricted neighborhood because it destroys property values." But they would not chase her out.. Still, the planning commission told her to get out. Now why are such things done? Why should government act to punish her for having been a good boardinghouse mother to ten young men who have learned to respect and obey her to the point where the whole neighborhood must commend them for their good behavior! Could she not be permitted to earn her living in peace and continue to be of service?

"HOT CARGO" RACKET

And while we are speaking of good government, I am wondering what the County Grand Jury is doing with the report given it by the State Senatorial Investigating Committee which looked into the scandal of those thousands of threatening telegrams which were sent out by local labor unions and organizations and individuals connected with them, addressed to Senator Ed Fletcher to influence his vote on the socalled "hot cargo" bill that has outlawed secondary boycotts for the duration of the present emergency.

When legislators are being made the target of intimidations, we have to draw the line somewhere. I wonder whether it will be necessary to bring Tom Dewey to San Diego to get the right action that would protect our legislators in their right and duty of voting according to their best knowledge without fear of dire consequences by organized minorities who plainly violate even the laws of the state. Will it be necessary for me to turn into a local Westbrook Pegler to get action and awaken our public authorities and the people to the crying need of corrective measures? I have done such things in the past and if needed I might do it again. You remember what happened to the firemen's attempt to hijack us under labor control. I carried the fight singlehandedly for quite a spell and broke the stranglehold of 50,000 signatures, for the voters turned the scheme down. It proves what I have always said: Be sure you are right and then fear no man.

Count Leo Tolsioy's Prophecy

FEDERATION OF NATIONS

I remember that previous to World War No. 1, Count Leo Tolstoy wrote out a prophecy in which he foretold the war, saying that it will lead to a world federation of nations. Dr. Hanish, the Mazdaznan leader, was travelling in those days from country to country spreading the same message. He re-published the Count's prophecy in an issue of the Mazdaznan Magazine of that date. If someone has a copy I would appreciate its use for re-publication in our columns.

According to Tolstoy, Japan would rule the Pacific basin, amalgamating all the colored races under one central body. The Latins would form another bloc and the Germanic-Anglo-Saxons be united in a third bloc. By representative methods these various groups were to form one central world government body.

As I remember Dr. O. Z. Hanish imagined it would take place within his life time and he organized groups everywhere to bring it about. I was very skeptical of the whole set-up when the League of Nations was proposed at Versailles. It was not at all what Tolstoy had in mind. As for a world federation, it all will some day come to pass, but when one remembers that in the days of Jesus the Second Coming was supposed to be "around the corner" within the life time of John the Apostle, and the Millenium is quite as far removed after two thousand years as it was then, the element of time in the evolution of man, plays quite a part. So I discounted all the efforts of Dr. Hanish as well as the League of Nations as anachronism. I still do. You cannot take the Kingdom of God by force.

I don't mean to say that prophecy fails, I merely point to the element of time. I have no doubt but that John the Apostle will be present at the Second Coming, but, of course, he will have to re-incarnate, too, to be here then, as Jesus will have to do, and the rest of us who labored hard to bring about the consummation of the millenium. But as to time, it might take us anything from two generations hence to another two thousand years, even more. Humanity is still in the jungle stage and if you don't believe it read the following editorial which appeared in the San Diego Union on Jan. 16:

* * *

JAPANESE BRUTALITY

"Ruthless Tactics of the Japanese army of ocupation in the Philippines adds the clincher of proof to the stories of Nippon's atrocities in China. Somehow it is difficult, even in wartime, for Americans to brand another people as sadistic brutes, but there is no choice in the case of the Japanese.

"For Years the Japanese in China have been conducting themselves like degenerate counterparts of the Huns of Attila. They have treated life with utter contempt while disregarding the last shreds of honor and civilization. They have slaughtered with cold cruelty, and have raped and pillaged throughout the territories of their conquest.

"Now in the Philippines these outcasts of mankind are threatening similar tactics, in fact probably have pursued some of them, and are even publicizing their cruelty in approved Nazi propaganda fashion. The death penalty is decreed for any form of opposition to Japanese military men or civilians, and the hostage plan of intimidation will be followed.

"The average Japanese soldier, as a matter of fact, is something of a beast compared with the average German. With a long military background, the Germans are amenable to discipline; they obey their officers without question. This is not true of the average Japanese soldier. He will obey military orders in battle, but in occupied zones he tends to break his few bonds of restraint and terrorize the civilian populace.

"With such sub-human creatures there can be no mitigating of war's horrors through the application of mercy. When the time comes for reprisals, and come it will, our justice must be hard and swift. The only mercy to be shown a mad dog is destruction; the Japanese deserves no less."

DESTRUCTION OF THE JAPANESE

Just think back when Japan did not want any intercourse with white "devils". But the white devils sent Admiral Perry with some gunboats to open up Japan to the blessings of the foreign "civilization". Thus the Japanese were taught that guns prevail. Their observation of the English method of treating the "inferior", or as the Union editor calls them, the sub-human races, confirmed again the view that white devils respect nothing but brute force. So Japan became "civilized".

It is remarkable that the Union editor now discovered a difference between the conduct of the German soldiers and the Japanese . . . . soon, even other discoveries might be made, it seems there is no end to surprises.

By Charles H. Ingersoll
(Of Dollar Watch Fame)

There are many things about this war—or the defense against it—that I have not understood as well as some others. But there is one thing I have caught on to without any halting; viz: That IF the Japs have secured or can interfere with our rubber supply, they have us in about as tight a spot as CIO plus AFL would if they ordered 50 million workers to lay down the shovel 'and de hoe'.

The word totalitarian is daily finding new definition in the many ways of skinning the cat—meaning getting control of monopoly. What makes me so alert to this phase of war is my study of transportation as a vital part of wealth production and distribution or exchange or sale and delivery. And the fact that we have 33,000,000 motor vehicles running on air confined in rubber.

If Japs won't give us rubber, we will have to revert to the horse and buggy. But of them it would take 33 billion or 1000 times the motors to do our work (including our fun). But the horses are fertilizer, and the buggies have followed the wonderful one-hoss shay.

World war is like the general, universal, or allout strike that CIO and AFL, under tutorship of Karl Marx, is always threatening. As terrible as is the war as conducted by Adolf, Benito and Togo, generals of our major rival unions have about the same objectives of strangulation and would adopt the same method if they could—even though they were fighting each other, twin brothers of labor, or both fighting their blood cousin, capital.

I am not trying to magnify the fallacies of Unionism or appease the emissaries of Satan, our enemies; but I am trying to see the parallelism in the wars; and I would be willing to shock the many who are alert to the terrors of world wars between ancient and bitter enemies, into seeing how equally important it is to stop our wars at home and between blood relatives.

To make my comparison clearer, the economic fact must be plain—that all wealth, all things people need, are produced by labor, whose production is multiplied by labor's offspring, saved up labor, called capital. There would be no labor war if half of proceeds or wealth they both produce were not stolen by taxes levied because monopoly is exempted.

I sometimes shudder when I think what our professors are doing to us, and especially to our next generation. They are not teaching applied democracy, which leaves a vacuum that smart propagandists are not slow to syphon full of the strange Marxist doctrines—by the well developed extra-curricular route.

For example, the economics professor Harris, of Harvard, comforts those old-fashioned people who are disturbed at the almost immediate project of $100 billion of national debt by saying that for the moment they may rest easy because he can see in a 'moment' of 50 years a 100 fold increase of our current or recent debt, or 2000 billion dollars! 'Why,' says he 'interest would only be 80 billion a year!' Then he quotes the President on increased national income' (without defining it) and failure of interest on debt to run over 500 millions a year. His audience is 3000 other professors and economists representing scores of the creme-de la-creme of educational associations of the country. They all seem oblivious, however, to any factual economic basis for such 'planning'.

Infantile Paralysis Racket is going full blast again at this yearly season, collecting dimes, etc.—Don't be a sucker! Infantile paralysis cannot be cured by poison injections! Health comes only as a natural result of obedience to nature's laws.

The Advisory Commission of the San Diego County Defense Council will have a meeting Thursday, January 22, at 2:00 p. m. in Room 104, Civic Center.

DECLARATION OF MAZDAZNAN

For the eradication of organic disorders of the body relative to deficient porous action the formula of "Restoration" is to be spoken on the breath and repeated from nine to forty-five times in succession, according to the extent of karmic conditions.

RESTORATION

By the five inflictions imposed upon Thee, Thou most holy Zarathustra,
I invoke the leaves of healing from the realms of Mazda,
To instill thru the power of holy spells, patience from Thy crown of thorns,
Thy chastised body,
The nailprints of thy hands,
The woundprints of thy feet
And thy bleeding side,
That purity may come to my heart and blood unto perfect health of the skin and the body,
And thus witness as a Zaota the pure religion of Mazda.
Amen.

Mazdaznan as a system of breathing the Breath of Life, or the Spirit of God, is based upon scriptural and scientific records recognized as infallible by ancient and modern scholars, and is acknowledged to be the only institution of Religious Thought organized from Eternity and established unto Eternity embodying the methods of nature as revealed to the Intelligence of Man thru comparative reasoning and untiring observation. Keeping abreast of the spirit of the times, Mazdaznan remains conscious of its Monotheism, Dualism, Trinitarianism, Unitarianism, Pantheism and Polytheism as revealed in the Macrocosm and Microcosm of the Infinite and Finite, ever blending but never ending.

Mazdaznan declares that the salvation from sickness, sin and sorrow, as well as the bondage of the Spirit, depends upon the individual effort thru diligent practice of Science and Faith.

Mazdaznan recognizes the lower walks of Life as repetitions of past incarnations called into existence thru processes of reincarnation prompted by prenatal influence and inherited tendencies which in Man constitute the cause of contention and struggle, thereby retarding progression.

Mazdaznan declares light upon all subjects, whatever their nature, and gives them due consideration in a spirit of kindness and toleration, paying respect to all ideas, views, opinions, claims, pretenses and statements.

Mazdaznan declares that all Life is Eternal, without beginning or end thereof, the knowledge of One's Self insuring Confidence, Assurance and the substance of things, which is Faith, for "This is Life Eternal—to know God;" thus, "Be ye perfect as your Father in Heaven is perfect," and "Know ye not that the Kingdom of Heaven is within you?"

Mazdaznan declares that in all this world of manifestation there are no two things exactly alike, nor can two things occupy the same space or place at the same time; consequently variation in ideas will forever characterize the individual here on Earth as well as thruout the abounding Space.

Mazdaznan declares thru this most glorious Message of Peace and Liberty unto all Mankind, Universal Amnesty and remission from all sicknes, sin and sorrow; showers of blessings unto Prosperity and Perfection to whosoever will come and take of the flow of Life freely, the Divine flow that quickens the spirit and refreshes the Soul unto a Life worth living.

Mazdaznan points to no authority or authoritative institution other than the Supreme as the highest ideal in conscious manifestation, and declares that all ideas are sacred to the Individual who proves and perpetuates the same by a Life most simple and exemplary.

Letters to Gladys

"ENFANT TERRIBLE"

Dear Gladys:

Received your reply to my first letter. You write:

"Don't you think that I am able to determine for myself what I want to do or not do? Why do you have to preach to me, even in details, what you think I should be doing? You seem to take it upon yourself to run other people's lives and reform them."

Now, child, let's have a look at it.

In the first place I never bothered about you till you said that you wanted to get acquainted with me, having heard one of my radio programs. And even then I was not too eager to meet you again because I am a very busy man and have no time to waste. Of course, you did not feel complimented, but that is another matter. I am only interested in people who want to grow in the things that make for progress. If I can be of service in that line, then I have plenty of time, if it is just to be wasted on futile talk or amusement I cannot spare the time. You thought me odd, but my interest in people is limited that way.

Don't you remember how you assured me that you were interested in spiritual truth and its reflex upon human everyday life? That you wanted to make sure what the standard of right and wrong is? Is it possible to know God and is it practicable to follow the the ideal as outlined in the teachings of Christ, or should one compromise and follow expediency and the ways of the world and social habits? And you wanted to know whether it is possible to direct one's path through life and be sure of success in the inmost desire of one's heart.

Now be honest, that is how you attracted my attention.

If you are not interested to study these matters seriously and minutely till you master them, why bother me? And if you are, then why throw it up to me that I am an old pedant who insists on this and on that and curtails your choice of what you wish to do?!

You said you wanted to know. So I took you at your word and explained that you cannot know a thing unless you live it, then alone will you know what it is. So, if you want to know the truth about God, you simply have to obey HIM, morning, noon and night and from the results you will become acquainted with HIS WILL, as you execute it, and be drawn from one surprise and discovery to another. And when you enter the realm of religious precept, you can no longer do as you please, because just as in anything that is governed by divine LAW, every detail has already been fixed and every problem solved the most perfect way. It is like in mathematics. The rules are fixed, every mathematician uses the same rules and cannot do otherwise to obtain the correct results. Then is when I am telling you, "you MUST do so and so" and you WILL find so and so as a result. I say it because I know.

Please, never suspect me of infrigement on your will and decision. I watch myself not to infringe on the decision of another. Only as people come out and pretend that they are Christians, or good citizens, or this and that, that I take them at their word and doing my part on that supposition then I am there to play with them in that game; and when they discover that I meant business while they were merely talking for the effect of pretense but never meant to live it; THEN, of course, it shows them up for what they are and to defend themselves they charge me with imposition and meddling in their private affairs. But I never asked them to play Pharisee and brag about their own virtues; why am I to be censored because I took them at their word and played up to them as if they meant what they said?

And this is the case with you. You said you wanted to know. I told you how you can know: by doing the things according to the rules. You charge me with imposing retraints on you: My dear, I don't restrain you; I merely show you the rules; if you don't care to obey and practice, naturally as a pupil in this class you go to the foot and finally drop out alltogether. But be honest about it. You did not really mean you wanted to know and find out, because there is only one way to do it and that is to live up to the rules in every little detail, morning, noon and night.

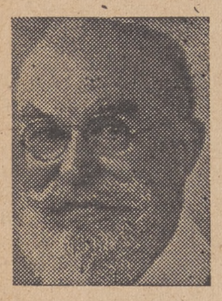
HEALTH-GERMS

By George Starr White, M. D.

LABORATORY METHODS SHIFTING

As our knowledge grows, the less faith we have in so-called "laboratory methods" for diagnosing or preventing any un-helth.



Dr. Geo. Starr White

What was demanded "by law" less than ten years ago is now admitted to be useless. "Fumigation" is a striking example. Now, only a "back number" would think of recommending "fumigation" as a preventive of any un-helth.

The same laboratories that got the law to back up boards of "Helth" in demanding "fumigation" a few years ago, now say "it was all a mistake."

Soon the same will be said of "germs" as the cause of any un-helth.

The plumbers, not the physicians, saved New Orleans from the scourge of yellow fever. The public should give credit to sanitary engineers, rather than to physicians, for modern sanitation.

Sanitation, not serumization or vaccination, is the real protector from epidemics, and the promoter of helth.

WAR

You blame the Duponts and Sir Zaharoff
But I must tell you friend you are far off.
It's you and I that caused this war,
That you and I are paying for.

One hundred million can't be bossed by one,
It makes no sense, has never yet been done.
If millions did not want to kill,
We would in peace be living still.

But human passions must their outlet have,
And lust to kill leads to the grave.
If we left bloody food alone
Soon war would be forever gone.

—Otto Schkoelziger.

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY

IN THE U. S. A.

"The Lord is MY Commander-in-Chief!"

Benjamin Franklin once declared that "there never was a good war, or a bad peace!"

No longer the easy way of life for any of us. All must face the stern realities of war.

Mrs. America and And Her Home

When women really begin to feel the pinch of shortage, metal products will be what they miss most. The lack of hooks and eyes and zippers, for instance, will make definite fashion changes, with designers devising new kinds of fastenings. Metal buttons too must be replaced, and pins and needles are already being guarded by dress-makers. Lipstick containers are another feminine necessity for which a substitute must be found. The wire shortage not only makes it hard for beauty shop operators who need hairpins, but florists are also having trouble getting wire for corsages and floral arrangements.

In making air-raid precautions, it's a good idea to tape your windows. But don't use surgical adhesive tape, the material you probably think of first for this purpose. Adhesive tape is a highly refined product containing three critical materials needed for war materials—rubber, zinc and cloth. Each average roll contains about 1-200th of a pound of rubber, and obviously, it should be conserved for surgical dressings. Ordinary gum, or Scotch tape will serve just as efficiently for the windows.

One of the national scandals of the last world war was the hoarding and profiteering in sugar. The government through the Office of Price Administration, has taken quick action to stablize wholesale prices and control excessive purchases.

Most rooms are overheated. As a means of fuel conservation, economy, and health protection, the Consumer Division of the defense program gives a few tips on proper home heating: Keep your room temperature about 70 degrees (any higher is unhealthful). Have your heating system tested for efficiency by an expert. Keep flues and heating surfaces free from soot. Cement air leaks around the heating chamber.

You can expect new furniture paints, varnishes and lacquers to be different from those you've been used to. They will be made according to 1920 formulas and won't wear as well as those made by more modern methods. This is because the chemicals used to produce the highly protective finishes are taken for explosives, camouflage paints, and as protective paints for mechanized army equipment. Therefore, military requirements will get the best materials—and householders must be prepared to have new furniture stain or chip sooner than usual.

America's sheep flocks will be bigger this year than ever before. But since the United States produces only about half of its own wool needs, this bumper crop will meet only the military demands of 1942. This means that wool blankets, dress yardage, in fact all wool for civilian needs, although not yet in the shortage class, will be more scarce during the coming years and available in fewer varieties.

As housewives all over the nation know, scrap metals such as aluminum, steel and copper are among the essential materials to be conserved for the war. But what about tin cans? The answer is "not yet". Although the tin shortage may become one of the most serious, there are not yet enough facilities for reclaiming old tin. In the meantime, expect substantial reductions in the use of tin containers for such quickly-used food items as coffee & shortening and personal products such as talcum powder.

After the blackout curtains are up, the next home precaution should be a check-up of the medicine cabinet. There are certain basic items that should be there. The official Government list includes: tannic acid jelly for burns, something to relieve pain, a remedy for faintness (spirits of ammonia), a mild laxative, bandages, sterile gauze in sealed packages, adhesive tape, a thermometer, a pair of scissors, and a pair of tweezers.

One of these days when you go to buy a new stainless steel paring knife, you may not be able to get one. The reason is chromium, an essential material in the manufacture of stainless steel. More than 90 per cent of it must be imported, most of it coming from Africa, the Philippines and Turkey. Although domestic production has increased greatly since the war, every available supply must go to war purposes—and housewives who want new stainless steel sinks or carving knives must wait.

Serving a half-hour spell in a British tank is stated to be a greater strain than a full day's marching and trench digging in France in 1917.

It is said the first Pole who came to the United States was a young man whom the Dutch colonists of Manhattan engaged in 1659 as schoolmsater for their children.

MASS AND GAS

If a German butcher were to pursue a British butcher with a carving knife, with the idea of cutting the man's throat (or of being 'carved') while breathlessly requesting a passing Priest to bless his murderous methods . . . well, the Priest would probably summon a police patrol or notify an insane asylum that a pair of lunatics were at large. Now when nations attack one another with bombs, poison gas, shot and shell, and then request God Almighty to condone such barbarity and administer divine aid, they are simply insulting the Infinite. Moreover, when clergymen countenance mass-murder, instead of condemning it, they are crucifying the Christ afresh. Of course, our country has no alternative, apparently, but to "lick" Japan, as we have been attacked, but for heaven's sake let us leave God out of it. Who remembers the commandment, "Thou Shalt not Kill!" Thomas Hardy seems to have 'sized-up' our so-called modern "civilization", when he wrote the following, while Christmas bells were ringing and candles brightening chancels:

"Peace on earth, good will, we sing it,
And pay a million priests to bring it,
After 2000 years of mass,
We've got as far as poison gas."

EDMUND K. GOLDSBOROUGH.

Edwin P. Banta, Counter-Spy

Dear Editor:

I sent for American Women Against Communion assortment of their releases. I thought perhaps you might use the one "What does Communism mean to you?" Today your issues of Dec. 8, 22, 29 and Jan. 5th arrived, no copy of the Dec. 15th issue included. Did you receive the material of the A. W. A. .C..? Are you interested in the work these fine Christian American women are doing, or trying to do without profit; in fact they spend out of their own pockets about 80% of all overhead only in hope it might aid in arousing America.

Ask Congressman Joe Starnes for my record and character. So much for that, dear Editor and now for myself, the man who spent 2½ years as an American spy in the Communist Party from spring of 1936 to Aug. 29, 1938. My report made the Dies Committee. In spite of promises by that Committee to protect me in a little WPA job I am today on Old Age assistance as I am 70 years old, which provides room rent and $12 a month for food. That $12 is worth about $7 or less today and I am supposed to keep alive on that amount. I give all my time gratis, to the A. W. A. Communism for something to do.

I am on record offering my service to my country by going into the Navy if they will accept me and my application is under consideration by Rear Admiral Adolphus Andrew, Commander 3rd Naval District, N. Y. City.

I am enclosing an "Open Letter" to the Communist Party; will you reproduce it and then ask your readers if they care to aid this old patriotic American whose line dates on this Island to Feb. 12, 1659. I am a member of the S A R, my Chapter — The Holland. We pay no dues because of my fiancial condition, also a "life" member of the Masonic Fraternity and 50 years a member of the Jr. O. N. A. N. (?) of New Jersey. My line had died on all battle fields from the Revolution to date.

Do you care to grant space to tell your readers my story? But don't forget the A. W. A. C. for their work is an important one. Was the issue of Dec. 15 of THE BROOM an important one? Also tell your Katherine Larson that I suffer from hives with no doctor or institution in N. Y. C. able to relieve, perhaps she might suggest a diet.

Very truly yours,
EDWIN P. BANTA,
215 E. 17th St., N. Y. C.

A FAR CRY FROM N. Y. C.

Dear Mr. Banta:

When people in San Diego approach me as a last resort to help them straighten out a tangle it is easily understood. I have the reputation for giving such service. But when people in New York city have to reach clear across the continent to plead for help with the man in San Diego, then the matter is not so simple.

I shall give you the space requested in my paper, on general principle, I do not sympathize with the fix you find yourself in, but that has nothing to do with the service I give. You shall have an open hearing.

I received the literature of the A. W. A. Communism and threw it in the waste basket. I get tons of that stuff during the year. Dudley Pelley is doing a much better job of it than the ladies whose effort struck me like too amateurish and infantile. To be effective the matter must be handled effectively. The thing that was wrong with the America First Committee is same as with the A. W. A. C., they don't tackle the substance in the manner that would cure. That's why we are in the war. The whole nation is afflicted with the same puerile attitude.

As far as you are concerned, I don't see where the Dies sub-Committee promised you a life long meal ticket by accepting your testimony. They merely promised to protect you from injury resulting DIRECTLY from your testimony. I don't know the reason for the loss of your W. P. A. sinecure, so I cannot say.

As for your patriotism in playing counter-spy against the Communists, you must remember that while certain types of humanity maintain that we must have a hangman, nobody wants to be chummy with him. It kind of hurts our sense of comfort to have him around when we know how coldbloodedly he hangs them. Naturally, those who must have a social hangman are under obligation to feed and house him, having made and contributed to his ostracism, but I don't know in whose service you were at the time of your counter-espionage. They are the people whom you should approach today.

While the aim of your espionage might have been lofty in your estimate, a spy is a spy in any man's language and country. He is a most miserable liar. So, please, when a man ingratiates himself in other people's confidence to betray it, please, don't run to me for protection, regardless of how lofty your "ideal of patriotism" may stink; a rose by another name smells just the same. The end does not justify the means when moral sentiment is appealed to.

As an old man, of course, you should be taken care of. But I have not accepted the burden for looking after old age assistance recipients in N. Y. C. Brother LaGuardia ought to do that, that's what he is getting paid for, so why not take this letter to him as an introduction?

As far as your hives are concerned, call on my good friend Dr. Benedict Lust, 343 Lexington Ave., N. Y. C. and he will gladly prescribe the anti-hives diet for your particular case. If it fails to cure you I would advise you to have some methaphysician prescribe a mental diet and that certainly would hit the spot and cure you. You must always go to the source.

Nevertheless, there are people who consider your counter-espionage services as a patriotic feat; they might do something for you, so I am publishing your enclosures on their own worth and merit that you may not charge me with neglect in giving you a fair hearing as far at is lies within my power.

Sincerely, C. LEON de ARYAN.

Central Committee Communist Party, U. S. A.,
35 E. 12th., New York City.

The Communist Party dare not take up my challenge demanding that the Communist Party agree to a review of my charges before the Congress of the United States.

First, I charge that Congressman Martin Dies is remiss in the alleged investigating of subversive un-American activities in that not one of the 116 acknowledged members of the Communist Party, whose signatures are in his possession, have ever been called befor the Dies Committee. I charge that J. E. Matthews, employed by that Committee, is notoriously "left" and still inclines toward his acknowledged "Fellow Traveler" record.

I charge that the American branch of the Communist Party is notoriously Anti-Christian and composed of outcast Jews; and has for its purpose replacing religion with atheism.

I charge that I was held a prisoner at 141 E. 29th on the evening of Aug. 29th, 1938, from 6 PM to 8:30 PM by members of the Central Committee of the Communist Party, and others, in an effort to obtain by force my membership book; that in this the Dies Committee were remiss in not summoning those who held me a prisoner.

I charge in particular that the Communist Party is placing its members in Roman Catholic churches and organizations for the purpose of destroying that institution of Christianity. I charge that the same activity is being extended into all other Christian bodies.

I charge that Communism has a secret Red Army in America; that licensed air pilots are assigned to the air branch of that body in America.

I charge that Communism maintains a highly efficient organization in the United States Post Offices, and have indexed and cross-indexed thru this arm of Communism, all persons for the purge at the moment it has been concluded that it is time for the Revolution in America.

I charge that Communism is responsible for removing from Mexican Public Schools all Christian teachers and replacing them with members of the Communist Party. And further charge that there is an army of highly trained soldiers, members of the Communist Party, in Mexico, ready to strike at America at the order of Stalin.

I charge white slavery against a Communist that the Dies Committee has pigeon-holed for three years.

I charge that the Newspaper Guild members of the Communist Party are in key positions in the newspapers of the country and radio; that their duties in the press are the tampering with news items and various other methods of sabotage of news unfriendly to Communism.

I charge that the same man assigned to bring on the Revolution in New Jersey was later assigned to go to Arizona, there to get a line on Boulder Dam for the purpose of sabotage.

I charge that Communists hold State and Federal civil service jobs, all to serve advance of Communism in key positions in local, State and Federal departments of government, ready to seize control and to supply the "Party" with all confidential records.

I charge that Communism has obtained key positions in all transportation; this includes busses, street railways, airplane lines and all transportation by water, inland, coastwise or trans-Atlantic or Pacific. All of these hookups are closely connected with the movement of food, munitions, military equipment and members of military forces.

I charge spies are placed in our Navy Yard by the Communist Party and in all other military units of the U. S. A.

In concluding this open letter, I charge President Roosevelt and satellites in his Cabinet, in Congress and the Senate, are selling out the American Constitutional form of government for a dictatorship.

Yours truly,
(sgd) Edwin P. Banta.

United States Courthouse, 2 Foley Square, New York, N. Y.

MR. STARNES. The committee will now come to order. This is a meeting of the subcommittee authorized by the resolution of Congress to investigate some un-American and subversive activities.

At this time we will call to the stand Mr. Edwin P. Banta.

I want to say, for the witnesses who will submit testimony here, that we are interested only in adducing facts with reference to un-American and subversive activities. We are not interested in personalities nor in religious or racial questions, nor are we interested in the political fortunes of any individual or any political party, but are purely and simply a fact-finding committee, and we want the testimony confined along those lines.

We care nothing about the individual opinions of any particular witnesses; we merely want facts and we want facts wherever possible to be buttressed by documentary proof.

You will be given every protection of the committee. You are summoned here by the Federal Government, and you are assured you will be given every protection by this committee, insofar as your persons and your positions are concerned. And should any incident arise which is of a threatening nature to you personally, any witness before this committee, or with reference to his position, we ask that that be made known to this committee immediately.

Now, Mr. Banta, you will hold up your right hand and be sworn.

Officials Blamed For Tire Tie-Up

CLEVELAND,— The government and the public brought about the rubber shortage that has led to tire rationing, a rubber executive declared.

"If the public and the government had acted sensibly, we wouldn't have to worry about tires for three years," President William O'Neil of the General Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, told Cleveland Advertising club.

"The United States entered this war with eight times as much rubber as Hitler had when he started," the producer said, contending that tire dealers could have controlled the supply more effectively than the government.

"If we could have told the public that there were plenty of tires and that if they waited a little while tires would be cheaper, all this control stuff could have been averted.

"But they don't want it that way in Washington. The college professors there are making more money than ever before and they want to hold on. They'd like to control everything."

No one is sending Bundles for America, but some of the scrap iron we sold Tokyo in the old, business-as-usual days will be coming back.
